

O C K A B A
Orange County Korean American
Bar Association

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 12, 2007

Media Contact:

Min Chai (English & Korean)
(949) 788-8900

OC KABA prepares for 2nd Annual Community Law School to be held at
Whittier Law School, Costa Mesa, CA

Presented by the Orange County Korean American Bar Association (OC KABA)

IRVINE, CA – March 12, 2007

With the success of last year's 1st Annual Community Law School, featuring special guests such as the Honorable Judge Mark Kim and Irvine City Councilman, Dr. Steven Choi, OC KABA is now underway, planning for 2007's Community Law School to be held on April 28, 2007 at Whittier Law School, Costa Mesa, CA from 10 am – 3 pm.

The Community Law School is endorsed by the California State Bar and the Legal Aid Society of Orange County. This year's special guests will include the Honorable Judge Carlos Chung and Irvine City Councilman, Sukhee Kang. This event is FREE and is open to all attendees, specifically catered for the largest Asian American population in Orange County, Korean Americans.

The Community Law School was established to educate the Korean American community regarding legal issues that affect their daily lives. This event will consist of seminars throughout the day broken into 30-60 minute sessions covering topics such as: Immigration, Family Law, Business Law, Employment Law, Real Estate Law and more.

For more information on the 2nd Annual Community Law School or OC KABA, please contact Min Chai at (949) 788-8900 or visit www.ockaba.com

###

About OC KABA –

The Orange County Korean American Bar Association (OC KABA) was established in November of 2005 and is endorsed by the California State Bar Association. OC KABA was established to promote networking among minority attorneys, provide more effective legal counsel to the local Orange County community, to serve the Korean-American community's legal needs with pro bono services, to promote the appointment of Korean judges, and to assist law students making the transitions into full time law practice. Please visit www.ockaba.com for more information.